TECHNICAL PROJECTS

Beatdriver | Software Engineer | 11/2022 | Github Repo | Deployed

Beatdriver is a beginner-friendly music creation tool you can use right in the browser. Users can create beats with built-in sounds and effects, upload their samples, and save and record their projects to share with anyone!

- Developed with Next.js, React, Firebase, Web Audio API, and Tailwind CSS
- Designed and implemented an upload feature, allowing users to upload their own samples and photos
- Designed and implemented the save, load, edit, and delete features for user projects
- Implemented a feature allowing users to edit and save other users' tracks, so they can pick up where others left off
- Set up Firebase authentication via Google sign-in accounts

Chit Chat | Software Engineer | 12/2022 | Github Repo | Deployed

Chit Chat is an app where users can message other logged-in users. The primary focus of this app was to set up a real-time chat with a filter to block toxic messages.

- Developed with React Native, Firebase, and Tensorflow.js
- Designed and implemented the main chat feature with Firebase, allowing users to communicate and send images to one another
- Implemented Tensorflow.js to filter and flag any toxic messages that users may send
- Set up Firebase authentication via local Email/Password and ensured unauthenticated users were rerouted to login

GameMap | Software Engineer | 10/2022 | Github Repo

GameMap is an e-commerce website that sells video games. Users can view all products and add games to their cart for checkout.

- Developed with the PERN stack and Material UI
